Housing Search Glossary

Lottery: Housing search opportunities listed as lotteries occur when a property is filling recently constructed units or opening a waitlist that has previously been closed. Applicants that are interested and income-qualified should fill out an application by the deadline, at which point tenants will be randomly selected for units and/or placed on a waiting list.

Low income: Households making up to 30% of the AMI can apply to these opportunities. In Boston, this is equal to $24,900 for a single individual.

Moderate income: Typically households making up to 50-70% of the AMI can apply to these opportunities. In Boston, this is equal to $41,500 (50%) and $55,550 (70%) for a single individual.
